Subject: What does it mean to walk by faith and not by sight?

Dear Dr. Ryrie: What does it mean to walk by faith and not by sight, as 2 Corinthians 5:7 teaches? --John B.

Dear John: That is a good question that would require pages to answer for every situation we might face in life. But basically I think it means that even though our Lord is not visibly present today, we can and should live our lives (walk) in the reality that He is present within us to guide and guard us (Gal. 2:20). We need to try to have a heavenly perspective on our earthly circumstances, problems, and opportunities, and bring everything under the lordship of Christ every day.
