From Dr. Ryrie's Thoughts

“Pray without ceasing: (1 Thessalonians 5:17). This seems impossible, but that's what Paul commands. Yet he practiced it (1 Thess. 1:3 and 2:13), and Paul was a very busy man. How can we ever begin to pray without ceasing? Here's something that will help clarify this command. Outside the New Testament “withot ceasing” is used of having a hacking cough. You don't verbalize prayers all the time, but the prayer line is always open between us and the Father. An important benefit of this conscious communion with our Lord is to remind us that we are dependent on Him all the time, and we will find ourselves expressing that dependence in specific prayers.
