

☞ I Know Not Why ☞

I know not why my Lord,
Condemned before the throne,
Should give His life and shed His blood;
For all my sin atone.

I know not why my Lord
Could love a soul like mine,
A soul that nailed Him to the Cross
And spurned His love Divine.

I know not why God's Son
In mercy stooped to save,
To lift my soul from depths unknown
And bring to nought the grave.

But this one thing I know,
But cannot understand,
There is no way but by His grace,
No help but by His hand.

And this one thing I own,
Though 'tis by Faith I see,
I yield my ransomed soul to Him
For all eternity.

Vernon Craige McKnight, 1944

Remembrances of Dad

☎ Elizabeth ☎

*My Dad taught me that despite life's experiences,
Scripture remains unchanged.*

☎ Bruce ☎

I'll remember:

1. All those Royal Viking cruises we took as a family.
2. Washing our hair with the hose in the backyard as a kid.
3. Sunday salmon dinners at La Madeleine.
4. Your dry wit.
5. Giving me driving directions in my own neighborhood.
6. Unsolicited advice.
7. Having reading assignments in College with your name on it.
8. Reconciliation.

☎ Carolyn ☎

*You spread the Word
To all those who would hear,
About the Man who was slain
And shed a blood tear.*

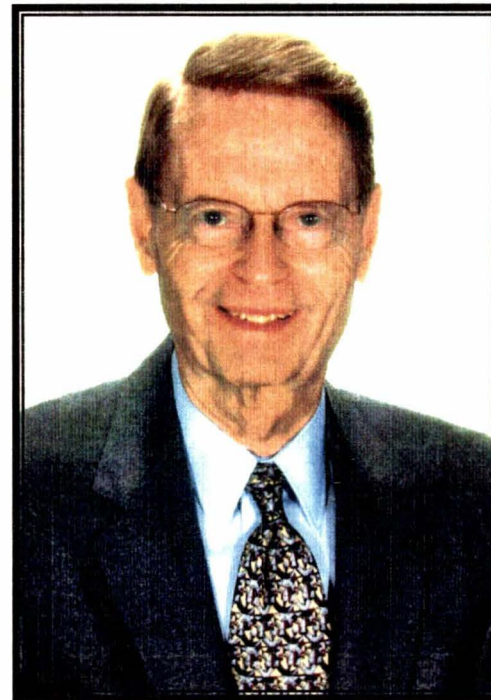

*You have written many books
To help human men,
Distinguish the difference
Between goodness and sin.*

*To some people you are famous
And one of a kind.
But to me you are "Dad"
Whom I love all the time.*

The family wishes to express their appreciation for your prayers, love and support.
