

HAGGAI-- A STUDY IN MISSIONS.

Ch.1:2-4.

1. THE PEOPLE'S SPECIOUS REASONING. 1-2

"The time is not yet come."

1. The time was inopportune.
2. They made themselves the judges as to which was the right time.
3. They even appealed to the Scriptures. The 70 years of Daniel. Jer 25:12, which still lacked two years. This is true of some of present day prophetic students. ~~MMMMMMMMMM~~: Jesus said. "Lift up your eyes and see." Paul said. "Now is the accepted time."
4. They admitted it was the Lord's house, and that it should be built, BUT, the time was not yet ripe. This is true today: Some say:- We do not feel like it.
Don't feel called to Mission work

2. THE LORD'S ANSWER BY A PROPHET. 3-4

1. Is it time for you to live in cielel houses Autos, houses, radios, comforts, luxuries. Is it time for you to take your pleasures? denying yourselves nothing. Goforth's story of the Korean farmer.
2. "And this house lie waste?" Is the Lord's house lying waste in these lands? It is if we are not doing the work to which God has called us. The need of the days is a spiritual revival in homes and churches, and a revival of Mission interest.
