

THE "OMNIS" OF GOD AND HIS SOVEREIGNTY

THE OMNIPOTENCE OF OUR GOD

I. Defining God's Omnipotence

- A. Some uses of the term.
Gen. 17:1; Ruth 1:20-21; Job 40:2; Rev. 1:8; 19:15.
- B. Some limitations on the concept.

II. Displaying God's Omnipotence

- A. In Creation, Ps. 139:13-16; Rom. 1:18-23; Col. 1:17.
- B. In Resurrection, Rom. 1:4.
- C. In Salvation, Rom. 1:16.

THE OMNIPRESENCE OF OUR GOD

I. Some Questions about God's Omnipresence

- A. Does it mean God is limited by barriers created by space or time? Ps. 139:7-15.
- B. Does it mean He is in everything (pantheism)?
- C. Does it mean He is detached from His creation (deism)?
- D. Does it mean he is equally related to everyone?

II. Some Ramifications of God's Omnipresence

- A. I cannot escape from Him, though I can ignore Him.
- B. I cannot control Him, though I can disobey Him.
- C. I cannot escape from Him, though I can run from Him.
- D. I cannot detach myself from Him, though I can break fellowship with Him by sinning.

THE OMNISCIENCE OF OUR GOD

I. The Concept of God's Omniscience

Matt. 7:11; 10:30; Luke 12:6; Acts 15:8; Ps. 147:4; 139:1-6.

heeds have spanned all stars me

II. The Content of God's Omniscience

All my actions, Ps. 139:2a; all my thoughts, 2b; all my time, 3a; all my ways, 3b; all my words, 4.

III. The Consequences of God's Omniscience

- A. Concern or fear, 5a.
- B. Comfort, 5b.
- C. Confession, 6a.
- D. Contentment, 6b.