

THE CONVERSION OF ST PAUL.

"The conversion and the apostleship of Paul alone, is of itself alone, a demonstration sufficient to prove Christianity to be a Divine revelation. Lord Lyttleton in his word to Mr Gilbert West. Published 1747.

Of the above statement, Dr Samuel Johnson said: who regarded the work very highly said it was "One to which infidelity had never been able to fabricate a specious answer."

THE THINGS THAT PAUL SAID WERE SAID Either:

1. By an imposter, who said what he did with intent to deceive.
2. By the force of his own heated imagination imposed on himself.
3. He was deceived by the fraud of others, and all that he said was the result of that fraud.
4. Or what he declared must have been the result of his conversion, and must really have happened.
