

Wolfgang Pannenberg

Jesus, God & man. This is a revision of that book life - Studied Berlin, Göttingen, Heideberg. Under Barth, Jaspers. Taught at Mainz, now Prof S.T. Munich.
 He + Moltmann most prominent of young theol.

I. It's A Priori

Threat. Must begin from below (historical man Jesus) not above (begin with Deity & incarnation of X). We avoid problem of 2 nature etc.

Main sections I - Knowledge of Jesus' Divinity - Resurrection
 not. Deity, not X's springs.

II. Jesus, The Man before God. He is rev. of human nature

III. Divinity of X & The Man Jesus

II. Features of Book

1. Stress on historicity of res. Proof of divinity based on res. & NT.
2. Stress on future as cf. eschatology.
3. Treatment of atonement. Rejects Anselmian idea.
4. " " Jesus' sinlessness. Rejects impeccability

III. Assessment

1. Research. Assesses scholarship. Wide historical knowledge good ex. of German scholarship, not international scholarship. Eng. scholarship takes note of German scholarship but Germans don't read Eng or Amer. writers.
2. Xology. Too broad for "Xology from below." Discounts nec. statements Abel.

disagree with his methodology.
 Rejects the ~~1-3~~ Col 1:15-23

Virgin Birth narratives are legendary. ~~The~~ Exegesis is weak.

3. He supports totally the results of higher criticism.
~~Jesus~~ Pann. denies Jesus claimed to be Messiah + Son of man b.c. records not genuine.

4. p 144 rebuttal of Baur on Virgin Birth weak. Fails to discuss temptations (re Satanism)

5. P's solution does not answer ques.
of relation of 2 nature.

6. Interesting passages in this book
p 245 - comment re sufferings of X.

Modern Theologians carry over problems in,
say, harmonizing the res. acct. into doubting the res. itself. But the acct. wouldn't have been written if they didn't bel. in the res.
