Dear Dr. Ryrie,

I was recently reviewing a book by Reynold Showers entitled, There Really Is a Difference and was reminded of the tremendous impact that your life had been upon me. I wanted to drop you a note and express appreciation for your clear, concise teaching on dispensationalism in my training.

It has been often brought to mind, as I minister here at Appalachian, of how God used you in my life. I trust that the Lord is giving you special strength as you continue to serve and minister for Him.

I don't know if your travels ever bring you our direction, but it would be a delight to have you stop by and visit as you are this way.

I'd like to chat with you sometime in the future. I've tried to call on a couple of occasions, but have not been able to reach you.

God bless you. Again thanks for the impact that you have been on my life. I look forward to future fellowship. Do pray the Lord of harvest to send forth laborers into His harvest field.

His Servant,

Daniel L. Anderson, Th.D.
President
