Dear Dr. Ryrie:

I have just completed reading So Great Salvation and am writing to say thank you for making the gospel of grace so plain, clear, concise, and interesting. The book was a gift from Dr. Robert Huff who was a classmate of mine at Dallas. I treasure his friendship and generosity in sending me the book.

When I first saw the book advertised, I wondered about the title being the same as J. F. Strombeck's which he gave to all of us students in 1950. After reading the book I believe Mr. Strombeck would heartily approve. The same readers who treasured his book should treasure yours.

I was impressed that you only quoted one DTS man that I could detect. I thought there would be none, but Litfin showed up late in the book.

While I am saying thanks, I would like to express special appreciation for the outlines of the books in The Ryrie Study Bible, the doctrine summaries in the back (which I also have on laminated sheets), Balancing The Christian Life, The Basis of the Premillennial Faith, Dispensationalism Today, and What You Should Know About The Rapture. These have been a special blessing to me. The latter was helpful as required reading when I was teaching eschatology at Calvary Bible College along with the one on premillennialism.

When I was student at Dallas I sat in a group of students where Phil Hook was sharing a number of your sermon outlines on various Bible verses or passages. I was impressed that the additional work required for alliteration really made an impact and easy to understand and remember. I used you as a challenge to homiletics students at CBC. Thanks for being such a good example and inspiration.

May the Lord richly bless you for your faithful scholarship and ministry. And thank you for allowing me to express my appreciation.

Yours by His grace,

Jesse Hensarling
