Dear Charles,

This is to acknowledge the safe receipt of eleven leaves from the Coverdale Bible. About three of these are somewhat defective and fragile, could I take less for these if need be? The matter is not immediate, there are enough sound leaves to go on with.

Best Wishes,

Yours sincerely

Alan.

Dear Warren,

When you phoned some months ago regarding my Coverdale fragment, we agreed that I would get $10,000 on a sale price of $15,000. I notice that you are advertising it at $18,500. I assume that I would receive 2/3rds of the selling price, whatever that be, but I would not want to take less than $10,000 to me.

Also while you were hospitalized I wrote your secretary to inquire about insurance on it, and she informed me that you were covering it for $10,000. Consequently I removed it from my policy.

I trust you continue to feel tip top and hope you have a happy holiday season..

Cordially,

Charles C. Ryrie

Dear Dr. Ryrrie,

I was mistaken when I told you that we had just bought the fourth edition of Erasmus' New Testament. In fact we had bought the second, and a short while ago the ~~second~~ ^{third}. But I seem to remember that you have them both. ?

Under separate cover I am sending you our new catalogue 155. You will find both of them described there, and quite a few others that may interest you. Especially No 27, the Lyons-Koberger bible with the illustrations from the Malermi bible, and No 30, which is exceptionally rare and has an interesting provenance. And I wonder if you have ever seen a complete copy of No 11, the Erasmus edition of St. Augustine.

Anyway, I hope you will find something that you will not be able to do without. I hope to see you during the Grolier trip to Texas, if not before; I am going to New York next week.

Yours sincerely,

And we also No 12, which I know you like?
