Dear Charles:

Yesterday afternoon I just about finished reading So Great Salvation. Let me express my personal thanks to you for taking the time to prepare the manuscript for an urgently-needed treatise of this currently confusing subject. It was refreshing to just rehearse the unfathomable doctrine of salvation once again.

We are distributing copies of this book to all of our overseas directors, as well as the regional directors in our Bible Clubs here in the States. I know that this book will be an invaluable contribution to so many who have been jostled off the cornerstone of all-grace salvation. I was glad to see the scholarly and gentlemanly way you were able to treat this delicate subject. There was no doubt in my mind about why the book had to be written, and I believe it was to your merit that you avoided attacking a person or a book.

It was a joy to have your good friend, Sumner Wemp, with us for the last week of camp and then the graduation ceremonies as well. We thank the Lord for the blessing that we continue to see and are daily amazed at the ministry that God has placed in our hands. We continue to think of you. We pray for you often and look forward to an opportunity of seeing you once again.

In His Grace,

George Theis
